

RISK ASSESSMENT
OWN HAULAGE OF CROPS TO THIRD-PARTY/PROCESSORS' STORES

FOR USE WHERE AN ACCIDENT OR INCIDENT DURING TRANSPORTATION MAY CAUSE THE GRAIN TO BECOME CONTAMINATED

Was the load sheeted?
Yes		No
Has the sheeting been damaged as a result of the accident or incident?		Has the load remained intact?
Yes	No	Yes	No
Has the load remained wholly intact (i.e. not spilt)?		Is it necessary to transfer the load to another vehicle in order to complete delivery to the store?	Advise the recipient (store manager) of the incident and request confirmation that the consignee will accept the consignment. If recipient will not accept delivery of the consignment return to farm and off-load into a suitable, segregated, storage facility pending disposal. Keep the contaminated crop separate from other stored grain until safe disposal can be effected.
Yes	No	Yes
If necessary, transfer load to clean trailer taking care to avoid contamination during the off-loading and reloading of the crop. Continue with delivery to store.	Advise the recipient (store manager) of the incident and request confirmation that the consignee will accept the consignment before proceeding. If recipient will not accept delivery of the consignment return to farm and off-load into a suitable, segregated and clearly identified storage facility pending disposal. Keep the contaminated crop separate from other stored grain until safe disposal can be effected.	Transfer load to a clean trailer taking care to avoid contamination during the off-loading and reloading of the crop and continue with delivery to store.

EMERGENCY CONTACT NUMBERS:

STORE MANAGER: _____ FARM OFFICE: _____

This document is for guidance purposes only – before members start to transport their own grain to third-party stores or processors they are urged to seek advice from the store manager regarding emergency procedures or alternatively obtain prior approval before adopting the above procedure.